Bayaud Enterprises	333 W Bayaud Ave. Denver CO 80223	Assistance	(303) 830-6883
Our vocational assessment, training services and employment opportunities include employment within private and governmental sector jobs. This past year alone, we served more than 900 individuals, which includes competitive job placement for more than 475 people. Since 1969, Bayaud has served more than 10,000 individuals by providing daily and work fact written or job referrals that have resulted in positive outcomes for most. We make a true difference, and have been recognized by Mayor John Hickenlooper for our work with the homeless. www.bayaudenterprises.org

Open Door Ministries	1530 Marion Street Denver CO 80218	Assistance	(303) 830-3201
Open Door Ministries exists to provide practical help and hope to people in Denver's inner city who are homeless or in danger of becoming homeless. Specifically, we provide transitional homes for young mothers and their children, as well as for single women who do not have children with them. We also provide a high-quality preschool, child care and before-and-after school program, primarily for children from families in poverty. Open Door reaches out to disabled people through our TRYAD program and Cornerstone Home. In addition, we offer free weekly meals and provide a resource center that includes job skill training, counseling and food. Through these unique programs, we supply tangible needs like food, clothing and shelter, as well as intangible needs such as friendship, hope and Christian spiritual guidance. www.odmtdenver.org
